

Second Announcement

Faculty of Railways, Roads and Bridges

Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science

Technical University of Civil Engineering Bucharest

University of Bucharest

invite you to attend online the International Conference

RIGA 2021

Riemannian Geometry and Applications

January 15-17, 2021

<https://fcfdp.utcb.ro/riga-2021/>

Invited Speakers:

Alfonso Carriazo (University of Seville, Spain)

Bang-Yen Chen (Michigan State University, U.S.A.)

Fănică Cimpoeșu (Institute of Physical Chemistry “Ilie Murgulescu” of the Romanian Academy)

Veturia Chiroiu (Institute of Solid Mechanics of the Romanian Academy)

Barbara Opozda (Jagiellonian University, Poland)

Konrad Polthier (Freie University Berlin, Germany)

Sorin Sabau (Tokai University, Japan)

Leopold Verstraelen (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium)

Luc Vrancken (University of Valenciennes, France)

How will work:

The conference will be held full online, by using the platforms Microsoft Teams or Zoom or Google Meet, depending on the number of participants.

The names and affiliations of the registered participants until December 2-nd are written in the Preliminary List of Participants, in chronological order of their registration.

Registration is open until December 15.

This conference will be held online from Friday, January 15, around noon (Romanian time) until Sunday, January 17, in the evening. We intend to plan the conference on only one plenary section (without parallel sections), in order to allow all participants to follow all lectures.

The participants will be notified by email regarding the online access at latest January 13.

Abstracts:

Those participants who will give talks are kindly invited to send the abstract as a Latex file according to the abstract's template (tex and pdf) from the conference website, until December 29, 2020 to adela.mihai@utcb.ro. An abstract in word format will be also accepted (please be sure the corresponding pdf is according to the template).

We thank our colleagues who already sent their abstracts, it is not necessary for them to resend the abstract, unless they sent the pdf (in this case, please resend the abstract in the Latex template).

Program:

The Program of RIGA 2021 will be posted one week in advance, until January 10. Those participants having the preferences on date and time of their presentations are kindly invited to specify them, when sending the abstracts. Also, please mention if you need a Certificate of Participation.

Invited talks will be 40-50 minutes long and regular talks 20 minutes.

Proceedings:

Proceedings of RIGA 2021 will be published in a special volume at University of Bucharest Publishing House, after July 1-st 2021. Templates and deadline for submission of papers to be published in the Proceedings will be announced during the conference. The Proceedings will be reviewed on MathSciNet and ZBL.

Registration:

The registration is free and still open.

Those who are interested in attending the conference and/or presenting a communication/as a listener and want to receive further information are kindly invited to submit the following

Registration Form by e-mail, preferably until December 15, 2020, to Adela Mihai, adela.mihai@utcb.ro

Registration Form:

-Last Name:

-First Name:

-University, Country:

-E-mail Address:

Regarding your participation, please specify:

-Title of the Communication:

or

-Listener

Looking forward to welcome you at the online International Conference RIGA 2021.

The Organizing Committee